

"A Very Glam Evening" event in the picturesque Terrazza Martini of Milan

ARTICLE

Fashion home Cleofe Finati by Archetipo is celebrating great success with a concert and entertainment by famous artists

Celebrating in style, after the fashion show in the picturesque location of the Martini Terrace, in the heart of Milan, where you can enjoy a breathtaking panoramic view on the most glamorous and metropolitan city's heart, where Archetipo has organized a unique event, "A Very Glam Evening".

The party was the perfect opportunity to share the excitement of the greatest achievements of the Archetipo Group.

Many surprises were presented during the evening, the magic of the Wizard Entertainment Flip, the Italian musicians Mocambo Swing, and Vittorio Centrone, the Belgian singer Manuel Palomo, and the Swiss duo Dust of Soul, which involved and excited with their art the guests of the evening.

Internationally renowned musicians as well as dear friends of the house, who have chosen to become ambassadors of the style Cleofe Finati by Archetipo wearing the creations for their concerts and performances. ...

...

The duo Dust of Soul are the singer, composer and songwriter Saskia Stäuble (aka Dusty) and the pianist and composer Michael Odermatt (aka MiKey). All the songs are original compositions, and strong by the distinctive voice of Dusty and moving due to the sensitive piano-playing of MiKey, all with a sound that is reminiscent of Broadway musical. After the first concert in New York City, giving concerts in dream location like castles in Switzerland, or the magical atmosphere of Tunisia, people talk about it already as a new genre of music self-described as "pure music that emerges from the depths of the soul". The original philosophy of Dust of Soul "It's about respect, passion and love" reflects the respect that the two musicians bring to their own fans, and at the same time invites us to live fully the passions we have in life.

The Swiss duo Dust of Soul gives concerts all over the world and is now engaged in the preparation of their new album. The pianist MiKey wears the magic of the creations signed by Cleofe Finati by Archetipo for their concerts.

Written by Lara Francesca Caroprese

www.giornalemetropolitano.it